The headlines read
 These are the worst of times
 I do believe it's true
 I feel so helpless like a boat against the tide
 I wish the summer winds could bring back Paradise
 But I know
 If the world turned upside down
 You'd always be around.

Football Sweetheart 1982-83

AMY MILLIGAN

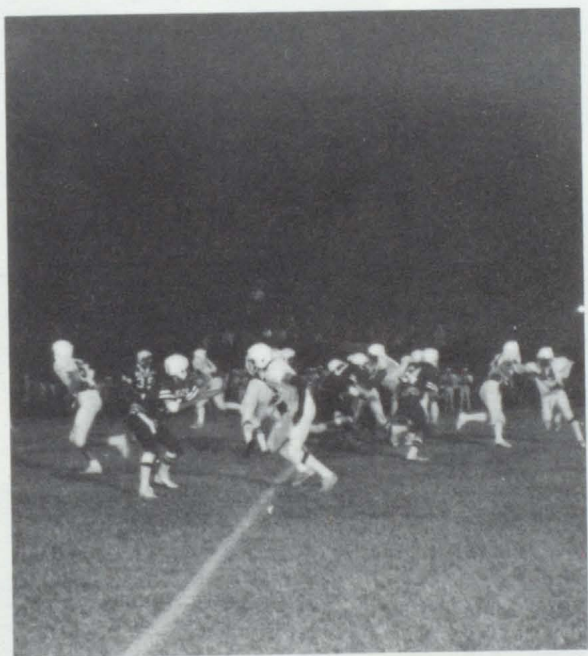

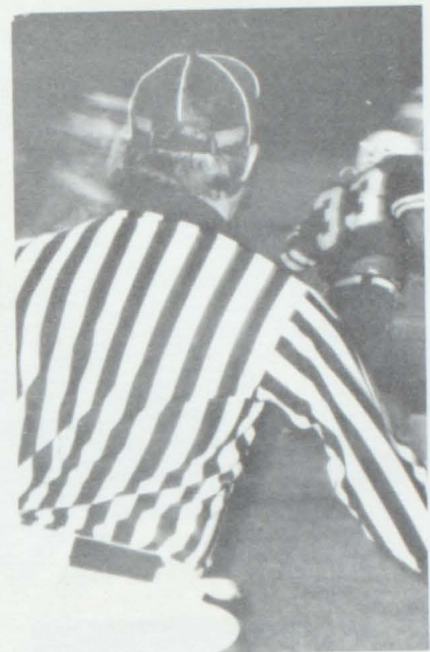

The Varsity football team did a great job this season. The Wildcats' record was 4-5-1 at the end of the season. Coach Yokely comments that a lot of credit goes to the off season program. It prepares the player for next year's football season. Running, lifting weights, and agility are just some of the drills they do. The wildcats played an excellent homecoming game, shutting out Nolan High School for 14 to 0 win. The seniors played a big part on the Wildcats' team. They will be deeply missed, but the returning lettermen and a very good J.V. should make up for the loss. Good luck seniors on the road ahead.

Weight ————— Lifting

The weight lifting team for 1982-83 did a super job in weight lifting meets. The team went to Cedar Hill and placed 5th out of 15 teams. Some of the competing schools were 4 and 5A teams. Coach Yokley was very proud of the team.

The next weight lifting meet was at Aledo. The team also placed 5th out of 14 teams. Coach Yokley says with the experience we've had this year, it should be beneficial for next year. Great job, weight lifting team!

Bi-District Qual.

The Varsity Volleyball team of 1982 is the first volleyball team from Kennedale to ever go past district. They did a great job with an overall season record of 13-13 and a district record of 7-3. Placing 2nd in district the girls went to play Van High School in the Bi-District Playoffs. Even though they were defeated at Bi-District they made that first giant step in the right direction for all teams hereafter to follow.

Career Day

This year's Career Day was very successful. Not only was it attended by the students from Kennedale High, but also by the seniors from Midlothian and Alvarado. People from all different fields of careers came to give us a glimpse of all the options we have in our career planning.

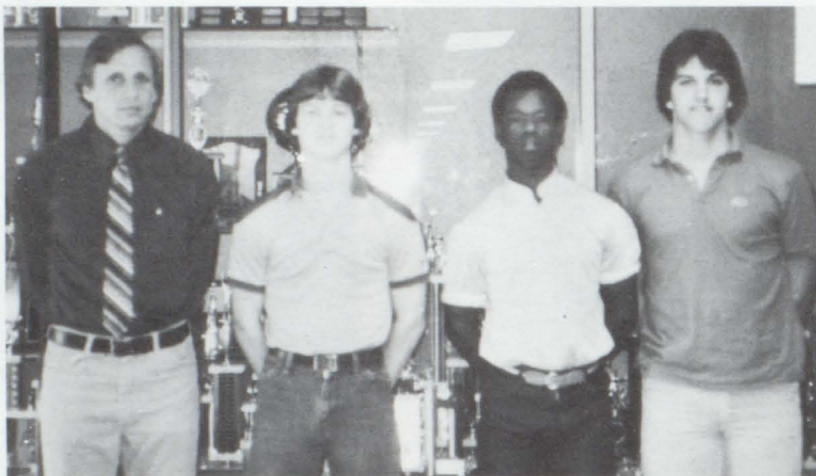

Universities, Doctors, Models, The Army, and many other companies were there sharing information and handing out pamphlets, pins, stickers and other little goodies for us to put in our little bags.

We give thanks to Mrs. Frankum, Mrs. Franklin, Mrs. Crosby, and Mr. Smith for planning this day and making it all possible.

VICA DOES THEIR PART

The VICA Club, with the help of Mrs. Britton, planted trees in the front lawn of the school in February. It was really a lot of fun, and it looks great. Last year, there were trees planted, but they were torn down by vandals. In order to keep the trees from not being stolen or destroyed, VICA is offering a $200 reward for help leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons vandalizing or stealing the trees. Great job, VICA!

I, Deacon Anderson, being of sound mind and somewhat body do hereby will Jan Reeves the ability to keep up with her worksheets in Home and Family Living.

I, Jeff Carroll, of crazy mind and little sexy body will Bo Platt and Kelly Turner my ability to let Lee Wayne West sack you 9 times out of 10.

I, Vonne Clinkscales, being of conniving mind and you've-got-to-be-kidding body, will to Sharon Esters my "magic" pass key, and all the plans, plots, ideas, and expeditions that go with it. Also to Sharon Esters, I leave behind the intelligence to know what a "Turk" is. To Sharon Esters and Michelle Torres, my knack of always getting caught while "Scoping things out" and to Michelle Torres I leave a certified "Roman God." To Mr. Rydell, I leave a brand new pair of track shoes so he can keep up with all his future 5th period pre-cal students, and to Coach Barrett, I leave a TCJC library card. Last and certainly not least, I give to Patricia Dion Cunningham, my eternal gratitude, for everything she ever taught me about everything.

I, Robyn Cooley, being of demented mind and body do hereby will to Michelle Torres the ability to pick up a whole baseball team in one night and to "Ghost chasing" after football games. And to Tracee Lowery the ability to give Mr. Smith a hard time while Connie and I aren't there. To Sharon Esters the ability to handle the night before a track meet. To Fred, I leave the Junior class to find someone to pick on that puts up with it like I did.

I, Dion "S.S." Cunningham, being of devious mind and always out-class body will to Michelle Torres all my knowledge, maps, and code names that go with my "magic" pass key. To Karla Hodges, I leave my ability to get out of class and then always manage to find a pass to explain why. To the entire female population of the Junior class, I, along with Vonne and Robyn leave . . . FRED!! To Fred, I leave the ability to know when he's being followed. To Mr. Helms, I leave the good fortune of getting three more seniors like Vonne, Robyn, and myself and . . . to the faculty I leave the intelligence to always remember and never forget: NEVER UNDERESTIMATE THE POWER OF A SENIOR!!!

I, Billy Deaton, will to Lee Wayne West the ability to carry on the boring day of school.

I, Lana Elrod, being of tired mind and broken down body do hereby leave to Sharon Esters my totally stripped down locker, my unique purchasing powers, my collection of very colorful jokes, and my ability to cook Big Macs. To Karla Hodges I leave my ability to meet all annual deadlines with as little confusion as possible and a "perfect" staff. To the faculty of KHS I leave the ability to find their signs in the ceiling above their chalkboards, NO KIDDING!!!

I, Benny Hay, will to the entire varsity football team of Kennedale the ability to gripe at everything the coaching staff has them to do. And also to Scott Prater I will the ability to give Mr. Britton a hard time.

I, Thelma Lea Kobeck, being of over-developed mind and under-developed body do hereby bequeath my good grades and ability to ace tests without studying and finish homework 5 minutes before class to all future seniors. I, Lynette Malcom, being of corrupted mind and questionable body leave to Karla Hodges and Lee Wayne West all the "stop signs" around Kennedale. To Keith Stringer the ability to own a car and/or truck for more than two months without totaling it, and to Richard "Gonzo" Gonzales, all my cheat sheets from Coach Atchison's class.

Me, Dr. Dan Millican, being of confused and extraneous mind will to Kelly Turner the ability to tape his own ankle when he gets "arthritis", the ability to skip class "legally" and to find all loop holes in the rules and regulations. To James Mitchell I bequeath the ability to bum off people and make them oblivious to the memory of it. To the coaching staff I leave Mike Nelson and to Coach Atchison I leave my absence.

I, Amy Milligan, being of some what demented mind and unproportioned body, do hereby bequeath Olitta "Jugs" Crutchfield the ability to raise @#%*" at school, cheat on a test, and corner Coach Barrett in dark hallways with or without getting caught and to Tammy Bryant all of our CLAN (Connie, Lynette, Amy, and Nichole) lust notes to Coach Biondi and for Lee Wayne West to be messenger boy.

I, Debbie Nelson, being of highly philosophical intellect imbedded in an earthen vessel, do hereby bequeath to Raymond Lopez my metal textbook container inhabited by photogenic reproductions of the supra-delectable Rick Springfield and the delirium-provoking Chippendale Strippers.

I, Kevin Soren Nelson, being of tremendously intelligent mind and somewhat strained, underfed body, do hereby legate my ample, if somewhat slipshod, locker to one Ms. Jan Reaves to use as she sees fit. I also apportion to Daniel Regalado my ability to squirrel through any examination with the highest possible percentage correct. To Miss Wright I do leave three cases of Extra-Strength Tylenol. To Mr. Rydell I bequeath my ability to grow hair. To Robert Reflogal I will the use of my handy dandy teacher passifier to do with as he sees fit.

I, Jon Ozenghar, being of sound mind and fictitious body bequeath all my prosperities, joys, and fun times of life at KHS to Jay Hansen and Anthony Peppers. I leave my ability to work in the office to Michelle Boortz, and my camouflaged locker with the booby trap lock to Donna Grammer. To all my teachers, I leave conniving minds and the ability to barely slide through my senior year. To my favorite teacher, Mr. Rydell, I leave my ability to frustrate frustrate himself.

I, Garry Petty, having a sound mind and short body will my number 30 football jersey to an athlete that is willing to follow in my footsteps: That meaning having the ability to go through a two days football practice and like it. And I would like to leave behind my secret of passing English IV with an 80 average without knowing anything about English to Dwayne Calhoun, he needs it. And I would like to leave another secret behind for all the guys without hair on their chest, and that is "How to Have a Hairy Body Within 7 Days". But there will be a small fee for this information.

I, Bubba Plunk, being of no mind and muscular body will my great athletic body to Richard Gonzales so he will not get hurt so much in the future.

I, Charlotte Putz, being of mischievous mind and very little body do hereby bequeath to Michelle Torres all the devious things I did my senior year and the ability to secretly get by with them without anyone finding out.

I, Ronnie Riley, being of sound mind and sexy body will to Skipper Pettitt all of my food in the lunch room, and to all the senior class presidents in the future the ability to set up the senior trip without making any enemies.

I, Stuart Wayne Sandlin, being of sound mind and body, leave to all my friends the determination to accomplish anything. It takes dedication to be the best.

I, Nicole Stevens, being of "Where'd-I-leave it" mind and "smurfy" body do hereby bequeath to Raymond Lopez the ability to punch anyone right in the knees who may confront him as being short. And to Richard Gonzales the ability to get through just one more year without waking up.

I, Timmy Wells, being of sound mind will to all the underclassmen my athletic ability.

I, Connie Williams, being of lustful mind and sexually deprived body will to Kim Tripp the ability to keep up the love notes to Coach Barrett and not get caught and not go in as much hysterics as I over his seducing bedroom eyes. To Tracee Lowery the ability to put up with Mr. Smith and be as nice to him as I was for one more year. To Mr. Rydell "Skinhead" the ability to always miss me in between 4th and 5th period. To Wesley "Wessie" Slack, the ability to juggle his girls a little better so he doesn't get caught and last, but not least, the faculty to never underestimate the power of a senior.

I, Angie Willis, being of unsound mind and body hereby will to Jan Reaves my totally awesome locker filled with foxes and also my ability to go all year without missing a day.

PROPHECIES

Class of '83's 20 Yr. Reunion in 2003

Here we are at Kennedale High School attending the reunion of the class of '83. It has been a prosperous time for some, but for others fortune has passed them by. The setting is on our new football field which still consists of a large area of dirt surrounded by some asphalt. As we approach the crowded field which is barely accommodating the large sum of graduates: 47!!!, we hear the famous old locker room lines, "What, huh, what," by none other than Jenny Giddens; or rather known now as the "bouncer of Billy Bob's." Dodging a punch, we scurry on finding two large columns. Oh, wait a minute, it's, Robyn Cooley's calves! She has just informed us, between mouthfuls of ice cream, that she is now Mrs. Borden (of Borden's Ice Cream) and operates a diet farm. Standing close to Robyn is her long lost companion, Vonne Clinkscales, who has become a multi-millionaire by bumming off the United States. Overhearing their discussion of the new Coaches' physiques, we move on. We find Beverly McClure Arter, Debbie Nelson and Charlotte Putz sitting together talking. The first of the three, Mrs. Arter, is complaining of her "E.T." hands from working at the print shop for 15 years. Debbie, who is now the branch manager of both K-mart and Motts, is informing us that Cheryl is on a tour for being Miss Universe for the year 2002. Charlotte does not want to convince us that she is really a greater orator than Hitler, so she is quietly listening. Now we approach the intellectual group: Dr. Dan Millican, a trainer for the Los Angeles Lakers, is telling his story of Dion Cunningham. She is an aerospace engineer and was the first woman to have twins on Mars, their names being "Falling" and "Star." Kevin Nelson, falling short of his plans of being a space engineer, has invented a video game called "Space Ace." Thelma Lea who is taking private piano lessons from her husband, Liberacchi, has become a concert pianist. Out of this group we can not exclude Timmy Wells. He is now a veterinarian and owns an obedience school for dobermans. Advancing down the asphalt we see Craig Rankin, Bob Jenkins, Gary Petty, and Benny Hay flash by. They are practicing their sprint relays for the Olympic trials. Trying to get their measurements right, they finish painting the lines on the track. Introducing tonight's entertainment is Bob, the manager of a famous band. We're just in time to hear the introduction: "Tonight we like uh, bring you the totally awesome new sounds of "Billy and the Supreme Gossips." Billy's back-up group is like you-know Amy, the lead gossiper, Commie Connie, Lustful Lynette, and Never-here Nicole, who uh like is not here, she uh like you know moved to the val, fer sure. They're like-you-know gonna sing their new hit, "Tell Me More." As the group continues to sing, our attention is turned to the front row, where we hear a loud crash. Three heads emerge from a large pile of "Bud" cans. Oh no — it's none other than Jeff Carol, Mario Malino, Royce Steed and Jimmy Milligan, who trying to join the chorus, have got the words wrong. They are yelling, "Give me More." Oh well, you know these seniors of '83. A few rows back we see three red dots; it's the VICA men, Kenny Erickson, Ricky Slack, and Butch Hall. They have all become lifetime members of the National VICA Board. Moving along we see two of our most successful ex's. Deon Anderson and Angie Willis, who have become big lawyers. They are discussing land-rights of outer space. Arguing with them to try and save their home on Mars, Glen and Darla Pope, Stanford. They argued that they were some of the first settlers to inhabit the planet with their triplets. On down the road we hear the complaints of Ronnie Riley and Bubba Plunk. They're upset over the destruction of Cooper Street. It was terminated for the construction of the New Punk Palace, owned and operated by Robin Lewis and Chrystal Matthews. Speaking of which, here they come. They both have purple mohawks with gold trim! And we thought miniskirts were out, but those things they have on are fresh on the market. They have invented an — easy-keep-no-care disposal "Saran wrap miniskirt." Chasing after them is that wild one Stuart Sandlin. "Look out girls, he's flicking his bic lighter again." It looks like 'patty melts' for those two girls. "Look in the sky, it's our patriotic partiers-Jon Oz, Tim Goodman, and Galen Turner." They are trying out for the U.S. Air Force's new strategic defense mechanism. Aren't those cute-camouflaged hats with propellers on the top and hidden nuclear bombs inside. Kim Mihail comes zooming up in her so-called New Camaro. "Hey, Kim, that car's out of date, better ask mommy for another." Next, we find Andrea DeRosset, a famous novelist, telling Lydia Ryals, a well-known critic, about her best seller "Guidelines on Choosing a Giggalo." Last, but not least, we see picketing at the sides of the track, Deanna Shur and Danica Pope, who are officers in the National Womens' Liberation Movement! The signs they carry protest housemen who get to stay home all day and clean house, instead of working 9 to 5. Well, it looks like we've seen it all and we've heard from everyone. Oh, wait, why are all the women running into the fieldhouse?" "Let's go see, what is it?" We get to the door and are drug in by the biggest cowboy we've ever seen. "Hey, Karla, I've never seen such big spurs in my life." "You think those are big, Look at their . . ." "Where are all these cowboys coming from?" "Why I'd recognize these spurs anywhere. These boys are from the Kinky Cowboy Club." "Hey, Karla, who's the lady that's corraling those kinky cowboys and keeping them smiling?" "Oh my gosh, no it can't be, it's Lana." "I guess she owns the place." "PARTY TIME!"

NEWS BULLETIN!

Our prophecy can not be continued — where as our reporters were dragged in the field house and the door was slammed and locked on the last "yee-haw." They were never to be heard from again. We appreciate everyone attending this class of '83 reunion, BUT we're going to find those cowboys . . . Uh, I mean reporters!

MEMORIES OF YESTERDAY

The Best of Times

Tonight's the night we'll make history
Honey you and !
And I'll take any risk
To tie back the hands of time
And stay with you here tonight.

I know you feel these are the worst of times
I do believe it's true
When people lock their doors and hide inside
Rumor has it, it's the end of Paradise
But I know, if the world just passed us by
Baby I know, I wouldn't have to cry
The Best of Times are when I'm alone with you
Some rain, Some shine.

We'll make this world for two
Our memories of yesterday
Will last a lifetime
We'll take the best, forget the rest
And some day we'll find
These are the best of times.

The headlines read
These are the worst of times
I do believe it's true
I feel so helpless like a boat against the tide
I wish the summer winds could bring back Paradise
But I know
If the world turned upside down
You'd always be around.
